ORDER: WITHDRAWAL AND DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

On June 20, 2012, AFSA, on behalf of grievant, filed a memorandum with the Board that reads:

This is to inform the parties that I hereby withdraw my grievance appeal with prejudice from consideration due to the conclusion of successful settlement negotiations. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

And on June 19, 2012, the Board received an e-mail message from the Department in response to an inquiry from the Board that reads:

Negotiations were successfully completed and the fully executed agreement between the parties was finalized and distributed, coincidentally, less than an hour after your email. Formal notifications and filings to the Board should be forthcoming.

Accordingly, the Board dismisses this case with prejudice.
